FFFFFFFFFFF Numb. 6897.

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, November 28. 1723.

New York, September 23.

ON the 19th Instant a Sloop, John Clarke Master, arrived here from Placentia, Newfoundland, in a Month, with Advice, that Low the Pyrate had taken upwards of 20 French Vessels near Cape Britton, one of which is a new Ship of 22 Guns, of which the Pyrates have made a Man of War, and keep the Sloop for a Tender; that they have taken several English Vessels and Boats on the Banks, whipped some Men to Death, and slit and cut off the Ears and Noses of several; that it is believed Low is dead, who was a little Man, and the new Captain of those Pyrates is a lusty Man; that the Day before Clarke sailed from Placentia, a Sloop from Boston arrived there, one Harris Master, who saw upon the Banks about 18 or 20 Vessels together, which People imagine were all taken by the said Pyrates, and kept together by them. Lowder the Pyrate had also been upon the Banks and taken several Vessels, particularly a Schooner belonging to Boston.

Philadelphia, Sept. 26. On Monday last died William Assheton, Esq; Councellour at Law, and Judge of His Majesty's Court of Vice-Admiralty for this Province, and one of the Governour's Council, in the 33d Year of his Age. He was a Man of Ability and Probity in his Profession; his Death is much lamented, as well by the Publick, as by his private Friends and Acquaintance, they being very sensible of their Loss.

Boston, Oct 7. On Monday last seven Cape Sable Indians were brought in here, and committed to Prison.

Boston, Oct. 14. By a Letter from Capt. Heath, dated Richmond, Sept. 29, we have the following Account, That the six Mohawks who went from hence to the Eastward were greatly rejoyced to see the Fort there, and well satisfied with their Treatment in their Passage; and at their Request had a War Dance, in Order to march the Night following. Being provided with all Necessaries, Ensign Coleby, and three other of Capt. Heath's Men to accompany them, they set forward up the River; when they had got about three Miles they smelt Fire, and finding themselves near a Party of the Enemy, the Mohawks sent for a Whaleboat, and as many Men as could come in her; 13 were accordingly sent to them, and they had a sharp Encounter with 30 of the Enemy, who in the Conclusion were beat and fled to their Canoes, leaving their Packs, with one Gun and Blanket, which were very bloody; two of their Men also were seen to be carried to their Canoes, which were either dead or much wounded. Of our Party was killed the brave Coleby, and two other of our best Hands wounded. On Wednesday last arrived here the Brigantine Daniel, John Hopkins Master, from Kayan, who in his Passage met with the Rebecca Snow, belonging to Capt. John Tunstal, of Somerset County in Maryland, bound to Antegoa, who on the 28th of August, in the Latitude of 28 Deg. North, and Longitude of 55 Deg. West, by a violent Hurricane lost their Master Robert Webster, and five more Hands, and all their Masts, excepting the standing Part of their Main Mast, their Boat, Hencoops, Rails and Quarters, &c. The present Master's Name is George Warbrick. Yesterday an Express arrived here from Northfield, with Advice, that on Friday last about 40 Indians attacked the lower Fort of that Place, and wounded two Men, one of them as he was passing from the middle to the lower Fort; some little Time after, a small Number of Men that were passing from one Fort to another, were attacked by about 70 Indians, and three Men of them are missing, who it is feared are killed by the Enemy. Colonel Stoddard went the same Day with about 30 Men for the Relief of Northfield. It fell out unhappily that 30 Men belonging to Connecticut were drawn off from that Frontier the Day before.

Turin, Nov. 19. Last Week his Sardinian Majesty and the Prince of Piedmont went to Susa, where they lay one Night, and after viewing the Fortifications of la Brunette, returned to Rivoli. The 14th Instant being the Octave of St. Hubert's Festival, his Majesty and the Prince, attended by most of the Nobility, hunted the Stag near Stupigni, and after a very fine Chase of near five Hours killed him under the Bridge which crosses the Po at Turin. A Fire happened some Days past at the King's Stables at the Venerie, by which 2800 Loads of Hay were consumed, but was extinguished time enough to prevent further Mischief. The Guards being straightned for Room in the Citadel, his Majesty has ordered three Companies to be quartered at Chivasso, ten Miles from hence, and they are to be relieved Monthly. Madame Royale has been much indisposed these four or five Days past; her Illness is in some Measure heightned by the late Cold and Foggy Weather.

Nov 12. Mr. Wall, according to Order, reported from the Committee of the whole House, to whom Heads of a Bill, For the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, were committed, That they had gone through the same Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed thereto with some Amendments, which he read in his Place, and after delivered at the Table, where the same were again read, and agreed to by the House, with some further Amendments.
